“Working for the supremacy of Christ in men & women’s lives”
David Stroud

Colossians 1:15-23

1. It’s our desire to see the supremacy of Christ at work in men and women’s hearts across our city. This passage presents a rich description of who Jesus is. How does an understanding of who Jesus is, motivate us towards sharing our faith with others? Discuss some of the challenges to sharing our faith with others and suggest ways in which they can be overcome?
2. What are the challenges of building new friendships with people who don’t know Jesus yet? How as a Life Group can we encourage & support each other, to develop friendships with people outside the church?
3. How important is it that "your friends become my friends" in the process of seeing others born again? How can your Life Group grow in this area?
4. Life Group socials provide a great opportunity for us to hang out with each other’s friends. Suggest some events that as a Life Group you can organise so that you can meet each other’s friends? How can we ensure we prioritise these events and invite our friends along?
