Gen 12:1-3

As we discussed on Sunday the promises that God gave to Abram applied to his descendants as well. Paul describes how we have now, also become his descendants (Gal 3:6-8, also Acts 3:25) and therefore also inherited the promises that God gave. They speak of what God intends to do through his people.

1. Look at the promises that God gives to Abram for the people of God. What strikes you about them?
2. Do you tend to think of the church fulfilling these promises? How does this change affect our attitude to the church?
3. I Peter 2:4, 5, speaks about the fact we are “living stones”, being built into a “spiritual house”. How should this effect the way that we act towards the church?
